A Message from the Chair

We are delighted to announce the re-opening of our centres; Beechwood Court in Conwy and The Pleasaunce in Cromer.

Over the last 12 months, our new Board of Trustees has spearheaded significant renovation and rejuvenation at both centres. Through God's grace and our renewed vision for the charity, CEHC has a bright future that we'd like to share with you.

We want our guests 'to arrive as strangers and leave as friends.' When enjoying one of our holidays guests can expect a warm welcome from our friendly team, followed by a holiday experience filled with fun and fellowship.

We promise a spiritually enhancing experience, whether this is your first stay with us or not. As part of our vision for CEHC, we have expanded our range of special interest weeks to cater for our guests.

On behalf of CEHC, I would like to say that we are delighted to be moving forward in the Lord's work. We ask that you pray for the work and witness of CEHC and look forward to welcoming you at one of our centres in the coming months.

Every blessing,

Mark Thompson

Join our team and volunteer

We welcome people from the UK and around the world at any time of the year to come and join our teams serving our centres in North Wales and North Norfolk.

Beechwood

Conwy, North Wales

Nestling on the lower slopes of the picturesque Conwy mountain and sitting in almost ten acres of mature woodland, Beechwood Court can accommodate up to 60 guests in single, double and family rooms. We have 3 relaxing lounges, and a former chapel also boasts 3 ground floor rooms with en-suite bathrooms.

Guests can relax and enjoy hill walks, taking in a breathtaking view across the Conwy estuary, the Great Orme limestone headland and the Victorian resort of Llandudno. On a clear day you can see right across to the Menai Straits and Anglesey.

The historic walled town of Conwy is a mere 15 minutes walk from the house where guests can visit Conwy Castle or the town and harbour.

The whole family can enjoy indoor games such as table tennis and bowls, play basketball or tennis on our multisports court, and children can climb and jump to their hearts' content in our adventure playground.

The Pleasaunce

The Pleasau

Overstrand, Cromer

Scenic surroundings and a warm welcome await holidaymakers at The Pleasaunce. Situated on the North Norfolk coast, only two miles south-east of Cromer, The Pleasaunce is a Grade II* listed mansion designed by Sir Edwin Lutyens for Lord and Lady Battersea between 1888 and 1902. Frequent visitors included Queen Alexandra, her sister the Dowager Empress of Russia and Princess Louise.

Standing in six acres of grounds, The Pleasaunce can accommodate up to 80 visitors, making it perfect for large parties. Guests can relax in the tranquil rose or sunken gardens and explore the cloisters and clock tower.

We offer fun and recreation for people of all ages. The Pleasaunce is a mere 100 yards from the cliffs, which overlook a popular sandy beach. Holidaymakers can choose to relax in the sea air, play a range of sports or take a walk along the coastal path.

About Us

Whether you are looking for a family holiday, a themed week or a church weekend away full of activity, a break in lovely surroundings, or time to explore faith and relax from the hustle and bustle of everyday life, one of our welcoming Christian Endeavour Holiday options is a great choice to consider.

We have two centres: The Pleasaunce in Norfolk and Beechwood Court in North Wales, where you will receive a warm welcome and depending on your choice of holiday, cover a range of activities, evening entertainment and times of prayer and worship.

We welcome holidaymakers of all ages and can accommodate families, groups - large and small, and those holidaying on their own.

So, whatever holiday you choose you will have the opportunity to grow together in the Christian faith whilst enjoying a fantastic holiday experience.

We also organise holidays at other Christian centres – see our website for further details.
